

Boet Nel Hunting Safaris

Namibia, Southern Africa

www.namibiansafari.com / boetnel@iway.na

Your Travel Checklist

Pre-Travel

- Schedule doctor's appointment for trip inoculations & check up
- Update personal identification so that it is current, with photograph
- You'll need a passport!
Check that Passport is current & valid for at least 6 months past the date of your return.
(Namibian visa and rifle permit are obtained at the border)
- Arrange cash withdrawal and travellers cheques with bank & collect.
- Buy a telephone calling card to take with you.
- Pay rent, mortgage, credit card and other bills due while on tour.
- Break in new boots to prevent blisters!
- Sight in your rifle.
- Take your rifle to the customs office at an international airport and get ownership documents so that you can bring it back without problems (applies to US citizens / others – please check requirements).
- Print names, addresses, phone numbers and e-mail addresses of people you may need to contact.
- Arrange for pet care & someone to look after your home, household plants, etc.
- Unplug any appliances sensitive to power surges (computers, TV, microwave, VHS)
- Unplug fire risk appliances (toasters, space heaters, iron)
- Adjust thermostat
- Stop home delivery services (paper, milk, etc.)
- Empty the trash & waste baskets
- Clean the refrigerator of items that will spoil
- Run garbage disposal to eliminate odours from left over food
- Wash the dishes (or you will be sorry!)
- Lock windows and doors
- Tell the neighbours how to reach you in emergency
- Turn on phone answering machine
- Set lights, blinds and curtains
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

PACKING LIST - The Basics

- Bags and suitcases
- Daypack
- Luggage IDs
- Passport / Personal ID / Driver's License (including photocopies, in case originals are lost or stolen)
- Airline Tickets
- Customs Firearms Registration paper (US)
- Credit & telephone cards with and access #'s
- Health insurance card
- Med-Jet card (for medical evacuation)
- Emergency contact information
- Phrase books and guide books (Lonely Planet is excellent)
- Document Pouch

Financial/Legal

- Wallet and cash
- Traveller's cheques
- Credit/ATM Cards
- Cheque book
- Correspondence related to the safari
- Copies of payments made to Boet Nel Hunting Safaris/your booking agent

Insurance

- Comprehensive travel insurance
- Traveller's medical insurance
- Emergency evacuation coverage such as Med-jet.

Personal

- Comb and brush
- Tooth brush, Tooth paste and floss
- Razors and Shaving cream
- Nail clippers / Tweezers
- Shampoo / Deodorant / Cosmetics
- Vitamins
- Lip balm and sun screen
- Hair dryer / Hair spray
- Feminine hygiene products

Medications

- Pepto Bismol
- Prescription Meds
- Malaria meds if needed
- Sun cream and lip balm (We suggest an SPF of 30 to 50)

Office

- Notebook or journal
- E-mail addresses
- Frequent flyer numbers
- Laptop computer (if you must)

General Equipment

- Prescription Eye glasses (and a spare)
- Reading glasses
- Sun glasses
- Flashlight & batteries
- Camera & Film or memory cards
- Camera batteries and charger
- Adapter suitable for Namibian/South African power outlets

Firearms/Archery

- Rifle / Shotgun
- Ammunition for above (up to 100 rounds in original boxes)
- Binoculars
- Range finders
- Rifle case (lockable)
- Ammunition case (lockable)
- Ear plugs
- Bow and associated equipment

Clothing and soft goods Laundry is done daily at the lodge, so you will not need a lot of extra clothing.

- Light, cotton clothing in olive green or sand colours is recommended for hunting. Well-fitting boots, warm pyjamas and sweater/parkas for cool nights and mornings.
Note: Camouflage clothing is permitted in Namibia as long as you are in the field - not elsewhere.
- Pants, casual and hunting
- Shorts & Swim suit
- Underwear & Socks
- Fleece jacket for cool evenings
- Casual dress clothing for town
- Shirts/blouses - short and long sleeve
- Belt & Bandana
- Light leather gloves (for thorn bushes)
- Hat for sun protection
- Pyjamas or nightgown
- Bathrobe and slippers
- Dress / Skirt
- Slip & Stockings/tights